West Virginia Seed Source Red Spruce and Balsam Fir Seedlings

The West Virginia Highlands Conservancy organizes volunteers to collect seeds from native plant species. We contract with commercial growers to grow seedlings for ecosystem restoration projects in the highlands. When we have a surplus of plants, we make them available to the public.

We currently have a limited number of Red Spruce and Canaan Valley Balsam Fir trees available for Spring 2016. These are high quality seedlings grown from the seeds we collect locally. All proceeds go to support red spruce ecosystem restoration efforts in West Virginia.

Spring 2016

Red Spruce

2-0 plug 10-15 inches. These quality container-grown seedlings are the same product we have been using in restoration projects very successfully for many years.
